

Patrol Section

The Patrol Section of the Stellarton Police Service is considered the backbone of the service.

There are numerous areas of tasks and duties involved in this section. The men and women working in the patrol section are the First Responders to all sorts of complaints and calls for service and assistance. They provide around-the-clock patrols 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and 365 days a year.

Some of their many duties include:

Drunk driving enforcement

Traffic accident investigation

Traffic and by-law enforcement

Escorts funeral and wide loads

Answering calls from our citizens

Conducting criminal investigations

Meeting community policing needs